PRICE OF GAS IN MIDDLE WEST TO INCREASE

South Dakota Governor Is Responsible for Predicted Raise

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—The Standard Oil Company of Indiana, serving eleven middle western states, decided here today not to raise the price of gasoline from 15.4 cents a gallon to 20 cents, immediately, as had been contemplated.

Instead the directors voted to wait and see what action would be taken by Governor McMaster of South Dakota, who announced the state's price would be increased from 16 to 20 cents on Saturday.

Governor McMaster's decision followed a protest from independent oil dealers of the state that the 16 cent price fixed by the commonwealth and which started a price war throughout the middle west was ruinous. The Standard Oil directors dispatched this telegram to McMaster:

"It is impossible to arrive at an accurate basis of cost of distribution in this state on the figures presented. However, a searching investigation of the matter will be vigorously carried forward."

"This company tenders to you in any such investigation which you may conduct all information in its possession toward the end of assisting you in arriving at a correct determination of this fact."

Order Price Increase MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 16.—Following up the move of Governor McMaster of South Dakota, who at the behest of the independent oil companies, has ordered the state filling station at Mitchell to raise the price of gasoline from 18 to 20 cents a gallon, including the state tax of 2 cents per gallon, independent oil companies in the northwest today began to bring pressure on the councils to get similar raises in all the states where prices were recently cut 6.6 cents a gallon.

The Pure Oil company, one of the largest independents competing with Standard Oil in the northwest, today made public a statement of its president, B. G. Dawes, which says: "The Pure Oil company reduced the price 6.6 cents gallon in the Northwest and territory covered by the Standard Oil of Indiana. This is deplorable from the company's standpoint as it entails a heavy financial loss. I fully believe that the public officials whose actions have undoubtedly caused the situation will learn very shortly that they have only played into the hands of the Standard Oil in the long run."

Lift Mystery From Stewart-Ince Fight

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Much of the mystery surrounding the alleged attack upon George Stewart, brother of Anita Stewart, film star, by Ralph H. Ince, photoplay director, was dissipated today. At the hospital to which Stewart was taken, suffering from a fracture of the skull, it was stated he was recovering. "Stewart doubtless will apologize before this is over," the attorney for Ince said.

The fight began when Ince spoke to an acquaintance, seated at a table at Host Lodge hotel on the Boston postroad, whom Stewart intensely disliked. "That made Stewart angry," it was said, and he quarreled with Mr. Ince. On the way back Stewart became more and more abusive. Finally he struck Mr. Ince. Stewart's chauffeur also sprang at him. Then Stewart was knocked down, but never was unconscious.

Aguinaldo Declares He Needs Protection

MANILA, Aug. 16.—General Crane and Col. Johnston are today investigating charges made by Aguinaldo, famous Philippine leader, that a hostile band led by Senator Soriano is endeavoring to steal his land by armed force. Aguinaldo appealed to Governor-General Wood for protection after which said demands had been made on his property.

Boston Business Man Is Behind Coolidge Throne

FRANK W. STEARNS

The Boston merchant-millionaire, the man who "brought out" Calvin Coolidge and literally put him in the governor's office in Massachusetts and then put him forward as a vice-presidential candidate, becomes the "pilot house" of Coolidge's administration.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—The man who discovered Calvin Coolidge, thirtieth president of the United States, and the man who probably is closer to him than any other man is Frank W. Stearns, Boston merchant millionaire.

Stearns, it is apparent this early, will be the Colson House or Mark Hanna of the Coolidge administration.

It was first in the spring and winter of 1915 that Stearns undertook to bring out "Cal," not as vice-president or president, but as lieutenant-governor of the state of Massachusetts.

At first Stearns was confronted with unusual difficulties, for Calvin Coolidge was as modest a man as was to be found in New England. Stearns finally persuaded Coolidge to accept the nomination for the lieutenant-governorship, incidentally starting him on the road to his present office.

He is Aged 57 Years Stearns is the son of D. H. Stearns, who in 1887 established the big Boston dry goods house known as D. H. Stearns & Company. He was born in Boston, 1866. He is now, at 57, in the prime of mental vigor and bodily health. He is a graduate of Amherst college. In order to carry on his work of "advertising" Coolidge, in whom he saw one of the great men of Massachusetts, he abandoned his business.

Of Stearns it is said in friendly spirit that he can talk more pleasantly and say less than any other close personage associated with high officials in the government. Newspaper men found this out in their first talks with him when he arrived at the New Willard hotel in Washington with the Coolidge party.

Fail to Find Trace Of Mary Miles Minter

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 16.—Efforts today to locate Mary Miles Minter, screen star, missing since her starting revolution that she was engaged to marry William Desmond Taylor, motion picture director, at the time he was slain here 18 months ago, proved unavailing. The young actress is reported to have been seen last on Tuesday when, with a few personal belongings, she left the home of friends in Pasadena, where she has been staying for the past few months. Her attorney, Neil McCarthy, declared he had nothing to say concerning her whereabouts and was inclined to talk on nearly every subject but the whereabouts of the actress.

Close friends of the film star, however, declare that she is not missing, but has gone into seclusion near here on the advice of physicians, while her attorney endeavors to make a financial settlement with her estranged mother, Mrs. Charlotte Shelby, whom the actress claims owes her approximately $1,000,000 which she earned in pictures.

Merchants Meet At Annual Picnic And Contest For Prizes

THE second annual picnic of the Glendale Merchants' Association was staged yesterday at Happyland Amusement Park, as the Haddock-Nibley Verdugo Park is to be known in future, and while the attendance was not so large as had been predicted by some, it was thoroughly representative of the commercial life of Glendale, and everyone who attended the affair enjoyed every minute of the day to the limit. The trees that rim the playgrounds of the park afforded a cool shelter from the warmth of the sun's rays, and the hundreds of spectators could watch the various events that were on the program in comfort.

In response to the request of the officials of the association many of the local stores and places of business closed at noon to permit their forces to participate in the picnic, and this action tended greatly to make the affair the signal success that it turned out to be.

In all of the sporting events that were held the rivalry was keen, and the younger element present at the park entered into the various competitions with an enthusiasm that engendered a similar excitement among the crowds of spectators who crowded up to the roped-off space where the program was staged.

In those events that were open to the women, the members of the fair sex showed themselves keen participants and displayed marked ability in their chosen stunts. One feature that helped materially in preparing the large and comprehensive program that was presented was the gift from a number of manufacturers and wholesalers of merchandise that ran into a large amount of money, and the thanks of the members of the association for these gifts, as well as for those donated by the local merchants, is expressed warmly in the program that was (Continued on page 6)

SOLOMON SAYS BONUS LAW IS CERTAIN TO PASS

Next Congress Will Provide For Veterans of World War, Is Claim

By A. K. HUTCHINSON For International News Service WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—Congress will provide a bonus for America's 4,000,000 veterans, as soon as it convenes, Senator Reed Smoot, Republican of Utah, next chairman of the powerful Senate Finance committee, predicted today to International News Service.

Smoot declared he expected President Coolidge to sign the bill as it is enacted by Congress, but warned the measure would become a law, if necessary, over presidential veto. Smoot previously held a long conference with the president in which numerous government financial matters were discussed.

Favors Bonus Law While personally advocating a bill providing a sales tax for raising the bonus revenue, Smoot declared Congress probably would pass the same kind of measure enacted at the last session and vetoed by the late President Harding. The old bill was sponsored by the American Legion.

"I feel that Congress should provide revenue to meet the bonus obligations," Smoot said. "I recognize that farmers and labor organizations are opposed to the sales tax and as long as they remain opposed, it is futile to attempt enactment of any sales tax legislation. Nevertheless, in the near future, legislation involving the sales tax principle will be written into our laws. It is the most just tax that can be levied and, with exemptions, I fail to see why any farmer or laboring organization can object to it."

Smoot declared he intended to introduce a plan for a general "expenditure tax" at the next session to replace other forms of taxation. "It is a graduated tax on expenditures, whenever money is spent in commerce," he said. "For instance, there would be no tax on a $3 pair of shoes, a small tax on a $5 pair and a large tax on a $10 pair. The tax evader could not escape this tax. I think farmers and laboring men will endorse it."

Glendale's Most Beautiful Girl Attends Picnic

THE prize of a wedding cake that was offered for the most beautiful unmarried lady on the grounds at the Glendale Merchants' association picnic at Happyland Amusement park yesterday was won by Miss Dorothy B. Morton, 114 West Milford, who was adjudged to be the fairest damsel among the crowds at the picnic.

Dr. David A. Baker, 118 West Wilson avenue, a more or less confirmed bachelor, offered a prize of a wedding cake to the winner of the contest when she enters into the state of matrimony, and Miss Morton is going to see that the gallant doctor is duly warned of the time when he will have to make good on his promise, although she refused to set any definite date before all the crowd at the park yesterday.

Deaths in Kemmerer Blast Total Ninety-nine as Final Count Made

By M. F. DACEY For International News Service KEMMERER, Wyo., Aug. 16.—Bowed with grief, stricken Kemmerer today planned to bury the remains of the ninety-nine coal miners whose lives were flicked out by the terrific explosion in Frontier Mine No. 1 of the Kemmerer Coal company shortly after the men entered the shaft for their day's work last Tuesday morning.

Latest figures given out by the mine officials showed that one hundred and thirty-four workmen entered the stop; of these thirty-five were rescued alive, ninety-eight bodies have been recovered and one man, Thomas Roberts, is still entombed.

Victim of Fate

Roberts was a victim of fate, having entered the shaft on the fatal day to substitute for his brother. The aged father of "Tommy" Roberts has haunted the mouth of the mine for two days and nights praying that by some miracle his son's life may (Continued on page 2)

STUMP TOUR URGED FOR COOLIDGE

Country Eager for Chance to Size Up President on Personal Visits

By GEORGE E. DURNO For International News Service WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—Pressure is being exerted on President Coolidge by his personal and political advisers to get out of Washington in the near future "and show himself to the people," it was learned today. The president is not averse, it is stated, and the late fall, therefore, is expected to find him on a short speaking trip, possibly through the North Central states. Certain of his advisers are of the belief he should go as far west as Iowa, while the suggestion has also been advanced that he negotiate the trip into Wisconsin, Minnesota, Michigan and the other Lake states, originally contemplated by the late President Harding to follow his return from the ill-fated Alaskan trip.

Would See President Leaders of the "Coolidge boom" are urging the new executive to get out just before the re-assembly of Congress.

Make First Arrests In Flogging Outbreak

TULSA, Ok., Aug. 16.—The lash with which Governor Jack Walton plans to drive mob violence from Oklahoma struck for the first time in this city, which is under martial law because of an unlawful flogging.

Two men were arrested by the national guardsmen, charged with being members of a party which, on April 15, flogged Walter Tuima of Red Fork, Ok. One of these was Robert Adkins, former deputy sheriff. The other's identity was not made known.

Attorney General short was to file information against the alleged lynchers later today. Officials believe, it is understood, that these arrests will lead to exposure of men involved in the whipping of Natio Hanaman, which caused Governor Wilson to put Tulsa under military rule.

France Prepares to Answer British Note

PARIS, Aug. 16.—The preliminary work of drafting a reply to the latest British reparations note was begun today under the personal supervision of Premier Poincare. Foreign officials said that, in addition to answering the British communication, point by point, the document will contain a concise resume of the French reparations viewpoint.

It is learned that the French resume probably will favor a partial payment by Germany, and operation of her railroads and industries under a monopoly plan.

MEN REFUSE TO ACCEPT OFFER OF OWNERS

"Lack of Sincerity" on Part of Operators, Asserts John L. Lewis

STUMP TOUR URGED FOR COOLIDGE

Country Eager for Chance to Size Up President on Personal Visits

By GEORGE E. DURNO For International News Service WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—Pressure is being exerted on President Coolidge by his personal and political advisers to get out of Washington in the near future "and show himself to the people," it was learned today. The president is not averse, it is stated, and the late fall, therefore, is expected to find him on a short speaking trip, possibly through the North Central states.

Present Letter The proposal involved is that the miners told the commission if the operators would abandon their custom off the miners' money due to the company for hospital treatment, supplies and the like, the miners would withdraw their demands for what is known as the "check-off" system.

The operators last night had presented a five page letter to the commission in which they said they accepted the proposition, according to Samuel D. Warringer, head of the operators' committee. Lewis and the other members of the miners' committee met the commission, the session lasting two hours and forty minutes.

At the end of the meeting, Lewis issued a statement saying five sections of the operator's letter were not acceptable. They were outlined as follows: First, The operators assumed in their letter that the demand of the men for the check-off system and also that the next wage agreement be of two years' duration would be dropped. Lewis said that this demand would not be relinquished.

Second, The operators said they would write the check-off agreement in the next wage agreement, "so far as the laws of Pennsylvania would permit." Lewis said he did not know what this meant. He claimed it was forged the issue, "because the law of the land must take precedence."

Third—The operators in their letter said that previously they gave the miners credit at company stores. Lewis said the miners will not enter into any agreement that takes their credit away any place.

Fourth—The operators said in their letter they would cooperate with their employees to reduce inconveniences to a minimum. Lewis said this would compel dealings with individuals, whereas the union stands for all men and calls for collective dealing.

Fifth—The operators assumed there would be no suspension of work September 1. Lewis said he would make no such agreement at this time.

The conferences did not break up because of the unexpected rift in the negotiations. The operators are to meet the commission again during the week.

SOCIAL EVENT
Honors Guest
Mrs. Lloyd H. Wilson of 204 West Milford street was hostess Tuesday afternoon from 2 till 5 o'clock, complimenting Mr. Wilson's daughter, Miss Mildred Wilson of Chicago, who is vacationing in Southern California.
Dancing and games were entertainment features, and late in the afternoon luncheon was served.
The luncheon table was arranged in pink and white. From a pink and white centerpiece streamers went to each place, and during the luncheon each guest drew a favor concealed in the rose. Cunning little Japanese girl figures were the cards at the places.
Mrs. Wilson invited Catherine Evans, Doris Hanna, Julia Pelley, Phoebe Vandeweyer, Martha, Daisy and Mabel Siferell of Glendale and Edna Swan and Helen Kinsley of Los Angeles.

Double Wedding
One of the most interesting events of the mid-summer social season will be the double wedding of Misses Eleanor and Katherine Sargent, Saturday, September 1, at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sargent, at 717 North Louise street.
In anticipation of this event the Misses Sargent were honored Tuesday afternoon at a miscellaneous shower given by Miss Eleanor Sargent, at the home of Mr. Stafford at the home of their mother, Mrs. J. W. Walton, at 519 North Kenwood street.
Both honorees and hostesses attended Pomona College, and the affair proved to be a happy reunion of old college friends.
Miss Eleanor Sargent graduated from the college in 1918, while her sister, Miss Katherine, was a member of the class of 1920. Since graduation they have been teaching, and it was while they were engaged in this profession in the north that they met the young men they are to marry.
Miss Eleanor is to become the bride of Fay Batten of Dos Palos, California, while her sister, Miss Katherine, is to marry Shilby Matthews of San Francisco.
For the compliment on Tuesday the Walton home was decorated with artistic arrangements of vari-colored dahlias.
The shower of gifts was a most novel feature. A large tree in the yard of the Walton home was decorated with blue and pink ribbons and the miscellaneous gifts were hung on the branches.
Two large baskets were placed beneath the tree and as the Misses Sargent wrapped the gifts they were placed in the baskets.
Late in the afternoon a lunch was served by the hostesses.
The company included Miss Margaret Jones and Mrs. K. M. Cowdry of Whittier, Miss Margaret Robertson of Santa Ana, Mrs. W. S. Belden and Mrs. H. S. Miller of Los Angeles, Mrs. W. N. Michael of La Verne, Mrs. J. E. Sargent, Mrs. P. E. Webb, Mrs. J. W. Walton, the Misses Sargent, Miss Walton and Mrs. Stafford of Glendale.

The rooms were artistically decorated with large bouquets of pink roses and the luncheon table appointments and favors were all carried out in the same tints in the rose design.
Luncheon was served at 1:30 o'clock, which was followed by an informal social and musical afternoon.
The guests present besides the honoree, Miss Velda Adams, included Miss Mary Adams, Miss Nellie Hockett, Miss Grace Tower, Miss May Godfredson, Miss Lillian Munson, Mrs. Virgil Astell, Mrs. Ray Lindholm, Mrs. Russell Drake, Miss Mary Tenner and Mrs. A. Jumping Boy Is Hit Hurrying to 'Three Jumps'
HARRY HAM, aged 7, rushed across Brand boulevard yesterday afternoon toward the Glendale Theatre.
A passing motorist bumped him on the left leg and as he fell, Harry was struck by a car. The driver thought the machine had passed over the boy's body.
But Harry was in a hurry. He picked himself up and dived into the theatre.
Fearful of having hurt the child, the driver called a policeman and had an interview with Harry who was in tears.
"What are you crying about?" asked the cop.
"I want to see Tom Mix in 'Three Jumps Ahead,'" he replied.
"Are you hurt?" he was questioned.
"No," said the little lad as he rolled up his overalls to prove the point. He lives at 820 North Brand boulevard.

Mining Town Mourns For Scores of Dead

have been spared. That he is dead, however, is conceded on all sides.
Many heartrending scenes were enacted at the two downtown morgues, all during last night, as hundreds of relatives and friends viewed the bodies, many of which continued to lie stretched under the white canvas on the floors of the Odd Fellows Hall and Fitzpatrick Undertaking Parlors.
Quick Interment
That quick burial of some of the victims is necessary was made plain today when it was learned that putrefaction and emphysem had set in on several bodies. The Frontier Local of the United Mine Workers held a meeting lasting until an early hour this morning, and made plans for the burial. Arrangements were completed for a general memorial service to be held in the triangular public square at Kemmerer at 2 p. m. Friday. Civic and fraternal organizations of Kemmerer will be invited to participate in this service and it is expected that all business houses will be closed and a day of general mourning be declared by the civic authorities.

COMMENT That's All

Merchants Had Happy Day Circus Reveals Prosperity Americans and Money Keep California Advertised

By Gil A. Cowan

WHAT a wonderful time the merchants of Glendale had yesterday in the excitement and festivities at Happyland park. And the good people of the town who wanted to transact business simply had to wait until today.

All of which caused the writer to enjoy a little picnic of his own preparing the following "cold lunch," as a matter of fact, editorial taken from other newspapers in the state:

The Hollywood Citizen comments: "The average editor learns to smile at trouble, but we do not envy an editor friend of ours his position. He is just now smoothing over the disagreement with an 'eighteen-year-old girl' because he printed a story about her sixteenth birthday party' in his 'Twenty Years Ago' column."

An index to prosperity is revealed by the Berkeley Gazette in the following: "The circus man knows where the money is. If one of the great shows on earth comes to the town, the people of that town might just as well make up their minds that, whether they have realized it before or not, their community is prosperous. If the circus passes them by, the reverse is the obvious conclusion."

"Always it is the first problem of the circus management to find people who can afford to see the show, and there are few agencies in the country more expert in their sizing up the situations or better able to tell of general business conditions and of particular localities. This year, say the showmen, the problem has not been to find good towns, but rather to select the best, for prosperity is well nigh universal."

"To this end there are circus agents strolling down scores of Main streets pricing merchandise in shop windows, peering into five and ten cent stores to see how business is, and watching movie windows and sizing up Saturday night crowds. They know their payroll figures and checking out building permits and public improvements."

Their tests, naturally enough are designed to show where people have ready money rather than where prosperity is deep-seated and stable. They know that six weeks after a big wind, fire or flood is the best possible time for the circus to come to town, for everyone will be working and will be inclined to feel that past disaster justifies present indulgence. That's the way the world is made."

Regarding "tipping" the San Francisco Journal says: "The stateroom steward of a transatlantic liner rebukes the American travelers who are sadly lacking in the instinctive knowledge of the size of the proper gratuity to tip to be given the servant classes of the old world."

"An English or French man who travels extensively possesses such knowledge, and is thereby saved not only much coin of the realm, but the hearty contempt of the servitors. The American abroad lowers the respect of the servant toward him, and suffers as their victim. The United States baggage label on any luggage is at once an invitation to mult the owner."

"Americans must confess that the 'instinctive knowledge of the proper amount of a gratuity' has been denied them. Europe has spared no pains in teaching us this difficult art. Tipping in the states was almost unknown until the tide of immigration brought the Continental servant class to our elbows."

"The real American will always experience a twinge of shame and a loss of personal respect when he parts with a coin to some one who has done him no especial service, but who exacts this tribute through the building up of an artificial custom. The practice of tipping is not democratic. It establishes a servant and master class. The giver of the gratuity feels the reaction of his deed even if the recipient of it does not. It lowers respect on both sides. Nobody knows 'instinctively' the proper size of a tip, for the custom is parasitic and not native to the spirit of man."

"After all, the American abroad has the right attitude toward this practice. He flings his money around like a drunken sailor. It proves his utter contempt for the money itself, and the ones that scramble after it."

Here's a hint from the Pasadena Star-News: "Keep California well advertised before the world. Last year's advertising does not suffice for this year, just as this year's advertising will not suffice for next year. Promotional publicity should be broadcast each and every year. California should be kept upon the tongue of millions living elsewhere."

Seeks to Build Up Hawkeye Champ Team

IOWA CITY, Aug. 16.—Facing a huge task in building a team from his 1922 football champs, Coach Howard H. Jones today started his charges through preliminary work in preparation to the season ahead of them. Twenty linemen and thirteen backfielders were ordered out by Jones, only six letter men being left from last year. Eighteen of the novices are from last year's freshman squad. The Hawkeye team's practice is believed to be the first in the country this year.

NASH ANNOUNCES NEW 1924 MODELS

Thirteen Styles Embraced in New Line Offer Wide Choice of Cars

With the announcement of a complete new line of four and six-cylinder models, Nash Motors again has provided convincing evidence of its claims to value leadership. Though Nash prices are still maintained at the same low level, the fundamental construction and design of the cars have undergone marked improvements, including new and outstanding body creations, many appointments and practical conveniences have also been added and there is a definite and finer performance that is immediately apparent.

There are thirteen models in the new Nash line, open and closed cars, some on the six-cylinder chassis and others on the four-cylinder chassis. The line thus offers the buyer a wide range to choose from, according to the Glendale Nash Sales at 121 South Maryland, local distributors.

Particular interest is centered upon the new Victoria, the latest addition to the Nash enclosed line. Swung low on a full 127-inch wheelbase, the Victoria is a perfect picture of motor car grace. The passenger capacity of the Victoria is ample for four adults; and there is room for a child to sit behind the driver's seat. The auxiliary seat is broad and deep-cushioned and its convenient arm rest provides additional comfort.

Another Nash model that is creating quite a sensation is the beautiful, big seven-passenger sedan. The body design of this new Nash sedan is distinctively beautiful, and executed with a dexterity and skill that ranks with the finest of the most expensive bodies built by custom made and foreign cars. The auxiliary seats are made with spiral spring construction beautifully upholstered so that they have comfort approaching the front and rear cushions.

Among the new four-cylinder Nash models the most interesting changes have been made in the Carriole. It is now finished in a rich maroon with shining black running gear and fenders. New beading marks the radiator shell and the convenience of the driver is heightened by a simplified and beautiful gas and spark control. A cowl ventilator assures beautiful comfort in summer weather. Kick plates protect the car from being marred by toe and heel in entrance or exit.

The most striking advancement in body lines that characterizes the entire six-cylinder Nash line are the new and distinctive fenders. Both front and rear fenders have a far deeper crown, which gives them a more massive appearance. The front fenders have been extended forward and curved farther down and in the front of the rear fenders are extended farther back and farther down with a particularly graceful sweep to their rear end. They also afford greater protection and add materially to the smart appearance of the car.

The new Six sport model is worthy of particular attention, as it is finished in a beautiful shade of Nash sky blue, upholstered in a gray Spanish leather with every convenience in the way of equipment that a driver could desire.

The New Nash Six instrument board is not only a work of beauty, but the instruments are arranged in the most convenient manner for the driver. The board itself has a dull satin finish with three neatly-arranged assemblies under glass. The panels of glass are thoroughly illuminated by an individual electric light, which can be turned on permanently or flashed on the drivers' will. A jeweled high-grade clock has been added as standard equipment.

The six-cylinder line comprises—Five-Passenger Touring, Sport Model, Roadster, Five-Passenger Sedan, Four Door Coupe, on the 121 inch wheelbase; Seven-Passenger Sedan, Victoria and Seven-Passenger Touring on the 127-inch wheelbase.

The four-cylinder line includes—Carriole, Five-Passenger Sedan, Sport Model, Roadster and Five-Passenger Touring, all on the 112-inch wheelbase.

Two British Stars Doomed, Is Belief

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Before tonight it is altogether probable that two of the three British women remaining in the National Tennis Championship in singles at the Forest Hills will have done a final and complete fade-out to slow music. The candidates in question are Miss Nancy Covell and Mrs. R. C. Clayton.

The fate of the third invader, Kitty McKane, is more doubtful. She is to meet "Little" Pakerface," otherwise Helen Wills, and although the sub-deb scored in straight sets over the British champion on Saturday last, the latter's game has improved so much in the last 48 hours, that anything is possible. Little Helen is the favorite, perforce, but not a prohibitive one.

As for Mrs. Covell, it seems that, for a player of her limited resources, she has gone about as far as she can hope to in a national championship. Miss Leslie Bancroft has an edge on Mrs. Clayton, providing the left-hander restrains the impulse to hit them wide and not so handsome. Molla Mallory, the champion, may be considered to be playing in luck in meeting Miss Helen Hooker at this stage of the proceedings. Helen advanced the round before the semi-finals over the defaulting remains of Mrs. Geraldine Beamish, of England, but she is like the stage magicians.

TRASH CANS ON CORNERS NEEDED

City Official in Report Makes Suggestions on Problems Here

Keeping Glendale clean is a big problem in more ways than one. For instance, a spick and span business district requires trash cans on the corners, according to F. J. Lipstreu, license collector and inspector, in his report to Police Chief J. D. Fraser which has been filed in the office of City Manager W. H. Reeves.

Mr. Lipstreu suggests that the public co-operate in keeping the alleys clean, particularly in the commercial center where boxes and crates and other rubbish quickly accumulate.

He finds that many people unknowingly violate the law by placing grass and leaves in the gutters and he suggests that Superintendent De Waas of the street department make complaints against

Six State Picnics Take Place Saturday

Adopted California sons and daughters are taking advantage of the fine summer weather to arrange picnic reunions of the "folks from back home."

On this Saturday Sycamore Grove park in Los Angeles will be the scene of reunions of former residents of Texas, Louisiana, Florida, Mississippi, Alabama and Wyoming.

The former residents of the first five states will join in their big annual picnic reunion, while the Wyoming people will have a celebration together.

There will be the county registers, badges and programs, customary at these state meetings.

offenders. Sidewalks in front of business blocks should come out to the curb, according to Mr. Lipstreu, for he finds merchants not prone to clean the trash from dirt parkways. He thinks business men will find it well worth the expense to have cement walks ten feet in width.

The inspector also is obtaining the co-operation of milk wagon drivers in picking up broken glass from bottles and the newspaper carrier boys are aiding the campaign by burning the wrappers to their bundles of papers.

BURBANK S. P. TO DOUBLE TRACK ITS LINE

Chatsworth Route Will Be Improved; First Band Concert Tonight

It is the purpose of the Southern Pacific in the very near future to double-track the Chatsworth line, which leaves the main line at Burbank, passing through Lankershim and Van Nuys to its destination.

By shunting a portion of the traffic from the coast tracks to the Chatsworth line, the officials of this company believe the carrying capacity can be greatly increased.

The S. P. program also includes double-tracking the Valley line from Burbank to Saugus, and adding another double-track line from this city to Los Angeles.

In short, the officials of the line have let it be known to the board of trustees that they contemplate big developments of their property in Burbank, and that the proposed subways under the tracks at certain crossings would have to be made the full width of the right of way, in order to take care of expansion trackage.

A large modern depot is also planned for Burbank by the Southern Pacific railway officials, who have decided to make no further improvements on the present depot but to build the new one in the near future.

The concert will be held on the lawn of the Edison school. A platform for the players has been constructed on the first landing of the steps at the front of the building.

The band has been practicing overtime to make this first concert a big success, and those who have been at the rehearsals do not hesitate to say that an excellent musical organization has been gathered together. Tonight's concert, if well attended, and in the event it pleases, will put the stamp of approval on the Burbank Municipal band.

It is hoped that there will be a large attendance.

The Santa Fe is contemplating a line from Los Angeles to Bakersfield and a survey for such a project is now being made. Whether or not this line will go through or near Burbank is just now a moot question.

The officials of the railroad confirm the report that a survey is being made, but state that no report has as yet been made by the engineering department to the company. Naturally, considerable surveying will be necessary before the most feasible route to Bakersfield can be found, owing to the high ridge that must be surmounted or tunneled. It seems quite likely, however, that the proposed line will go by not far from Burbank.

EXPERT SELECTS

MOLLA TO WIN

This Is Not Helen Wills' Year, in Opinion of William Tilden

By DAVIS J. WALSH For International News Service
NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Controversists probably will insist upon playing the third round of the National women's tennis singles championship, but, as far as William T. Tilden II is concerned, they might just as well award the title to Mrs. Molla Mallory without further ado.
Tilden regards the ex-nurse as the class of the tournament.
'It wouldn't surprise me if Mrs. Mallory retained her title without the loss of a set,' the men's singles champion confided to a friend. 'Steadiness is the main issue in women's tennis, and Mrs. Mallory has it to a degree hardly approached by the other entries.'
What, however, of Miss Helen Wills, sub-deb, and brilliant far beyond her years, of whom the experts chant a happy psalm?
Puts Them Away
Tilden evidently doesn't think this is to be Helen's year, in spite of the opinions to the contrary. He also disposes of Miss Eleanor Goss and Mrs. Leslie Bancroft, leading American contenders, and the four British entries, to wit: Miss Kitty McKane, Mrs. Geraldine Beamish, Mrs. R. C. Clayton and Mrs. B. C. (Nancy) Covell. They, in effect, must save themselves the bother by taking a graceful exit from back stage, he intimates.
Asked to explain the faults of Mrs. Mallory and other Americans abroad and the similarly inept efforts of the British here, Tilden answered with ready assurance.
'Simplest thing in the world,' was his reply. 'It is all due to the styles used here and in England. Before an invading tennis player can adapt himself or herself to conditions, he or she is listed among the dead. Defeat often comes at the hands of an inferior player. It is because of this that international matches are not a true test of tennis.'

Merchants Stage Varied Program Of Stunts At Annual Picnic At Park

issued for the guidance of those attending the picnic.
The happy groups who gathered together when the big basket luncheon was held were typical of the spirit of pleasure that animated the entire scene, and the smoothness with which the long program of events was run reflected credit on the officials of the organization.

Glendale Spirit Is Revealed By Stores Closing

The response of the business men of Glendale to the request of the Glendale Merchants' Association, that as many stores as possible be closed for the second annual picnic of the association, which was held yesterday at Happyland Amusement Park, was generous in the extreme, a large proportion of the local business establishments closing for the afternoon to permit their executives and employes to attend the picnic.

That this act on the part of the business men entailed a distinct sacrifice is appreciated by the members of the association who had charge of the arrangements for the picnic, but the spirit of cooperation so abundantly shown is regarded as typical of the citizens of Glendale, who are always ready to turn out and lend their aid to making an affair of this kind a success, irrespective of the influence it may have on their own affairs.

Island dressing, Marvin Martinez.

Married ladies' baseball throw, 1st, gallon of ice cream, from Glendale Ice Cream Co., Miss Charlotte Hawkins; 2nd, bottle of toilet water, from Glendale Pharmacy, Mrs. Dan Kelly; 3rd, two cans B'r'r Rabbit molasses from Pennick & Ford, Mrs. B. Morgan.

East Side Team Snatches Championship In Lurid Contest At Big Picnic

The Eastsides bagged the Glendale baseball championship yesterday afternoon at the Merchants' picnic in the Haddock-Nibley Happyland Amusement park at Verdugo Woodlands, winning over the Westsides by the exuberant margin of 11 runs, the final tally being 26 to 15 in their favor. The game was marked by hilarity and home runs. Joe Griffin, as base umpire, was the individual star. At the end of the third, the score stood 5 to 3 in favor of the Eastsides—and from then on the margin widened with each dramatic inning.

When the game was over, it was learned that the bases had been worn threadbare and deep furrows cut along the circuit. To make the defeat all the more inglorious, the losers had ten men on their team, to the winners' eight.

Show Some Novelties In the first of the fifth, Al Wheelon, at shortstop, thought he was playing football—and kicked the ball just as he was reaching for it, scoring Hibbard. But in the second half of the fifth, the tables were turned, when Swanson, the Westsides' hurler, thought he was doing a juggling act with a batted ball—and Wheelon got to first. Wheelon came home while the fielder was looking around for a step-ladder to get Ingledue's high one.

The Westsides scored one run in their half of the sixth. In the last half of this inning everyone hit Mick's stuff, four runs coming in. The seventh and eighth were not sensational, until at the very last of the latter Ingledue caught a low, fast-traveling fly with his finger-tips, breaking up a Westside rally that had scored three runs.

The ninth opened with the score 18 to 11 in favor of the Eastsides. Then, with one out and three on, a long drive to center field started the merry-go-round. Everyone stepped up and selected either a home run or a three-bagger.

At this point two of the boys had a friendly debate on the subject, "Resolved, That references to race, color or previous condition of servitude be left out of baseball." Just as some interesting points were being brought out, it was decided to hire a hall and make the debate a public affair. Further announcement will not be made later.

When the ninth was over, it was seen that the Eastsides had scored 8 runs to the Westsides' 4. This brought the total score to 26 to 15 in favor of the former. The Eastside team was captained by W. P. Potter and comprised the following players: E. Camargo, Hastings, Hibbard, Gibson, Wheelon, Ingledue and F. Camargo.

The Westside team was captained by Sam Wilson and comprised the following players: Lawrence, Winslow, Morgan, Richards, Swanson, Potts, Marvin, Hibbard and Hinz.

Bill Fieldman called strikes and balls, while Joe Griffin umpired the bases.

BEAN ESTIMATES REVEAL VARIETY

Winner in Contest Comes Within 27 of Guessing Correct Number

The discrepancy of opinion that makes for horse racing and other games of chance holds good whenever a crowd of people beings to guess how many beans are in a pint jar, and yesterday's guessing contest at the merchants' picnic was no exception to this rule.

The beans, as counted this morning by the committee of the Glendale Merchants' Association, totaled 1590, and the estimates ranged all the way from hundreds above to hundreds below that number.

The first prize, $15 order or purchase price of a new award, by W. T. Gilliam, 210 East Broadway, went to W. G. Lauderdale, who guessed 1563 beans; second, $10 sofa pillow, from Geo. J. Lyons' shop, 213 East Broadway; to Charlotte Busby; third, Simplex electric toaster from Charles Stuart, Glendale Pharmacy, to Burnham Lauderdale; fourth, celluloid powder box, from Glendale Pharmacy, to Jeanette Zeitlin; fifth, cabinet of Golden Gate products, Mrs. Elton Hillam Kelly; sixth, 25 bottle sack of Glean flour, Billy Lauderdale; seventh, tin of Graham crackers, Pearl L. Moore; eighth, 2 pounds Richlieu coffee, Addie T. Clark; ninth, two cans B'r'r Rabbit molasses, Ralph A. Lynd; tenth, 5 cans Carnation milk, Rute E. Downing.

being donated by Harry Moore, Inc. As the winners in the various events were announced, they were given tickets, which they presented to Mrs. E. L. Gartley, who handed out the prizes after every number on the program, obviating any delay and bringing satisfaction to the contestants.

Will Return Prizes Owing to the length of the program, and also to the fact that the entries in several events were not forthcoming in sufficient numbers, some stunts had to be omitted, and the prizes that were donated for these events will be returned to the firms that gave them. These firms are Harry Moore, Inc., 304 East Broadway; Cook & Taylor, 204 South Brand boulevard; Page Furniture Co., 306 East Broadway; William Hunter, of the Glendale Paint & Paper Store, 119 South Brand; Goode & Belew, 110 East Broadway; Baldwin Shirt Co.; Sherrod's, 133 North Brand; Gordon's Shop, 119 North Brand.

Owen C. Emery acted as announcer of the events during the first half of the program, surrendering the megaphone to F. C. Butler for the last half. At the dance that was held during the evening, Don Webb acted as master of ceremonies, and Frank Cornwall was on duty in the ticket booth. As a special point of interest in two of the dances, all of the couples on the floor were given fresh loaves of Holsum bread.

The following committees had charge of the picnic: General Reception—Owen C. Emery, chairman; Dr. David A. Baker, Albert Cornwall, R. Downing, A. T. Cowan, Charles F. Stuart, T. H. Watson, W. H. Hooper, C. H. Kirkman, D. H. Smith, J. P. Lucecock, H. M. Butts, Robert C. Plume, R. W. Jessup, D. L. Gregg, Ole Andresen, Rene Olin, William C. Page, H. A. Kent, Ed Radke, J. A. Robinson, F. A. Trice.

Literary Gold Mine Here! Many Writers in Field Digging Magazine Nuggets

By GIL A. COWAN
GLENDALE offers a fertile field for the author seeking material for fiction, although there may be some who do not agree in that assertion. By that we mean there are always those unsuccessful souls who attribute failure to environment.

Nevertheless there are numerous short story writers in our midst, living in humble homes or apartments, with the particular object of using California and its cosmopolitan population in their business. And it is not so much for the history of the haciendas which were originally found here, or for the green Verdugo hills here, although both have been capitalized, but it is to get information.

Plenty of Material
There is, perhaps, no place in the world where a more interesting group of people can be found except it be London. And, as far as material things go, about everything strange eventually gets to the southland for the "movies" or in the hands of wealthy connoisseurs of art and curios.

The research departments of the various film concerns have collected a wonderful assortment of information on civilization since its very beginnings and they use about every known living animal obtainable. They also develop architecture, recent effects and the like, all of which are inspiration.

Yet, with all of this, the writer believes there lies a field for the clever writer in interviewing the movie characters, travelers and artists whose experiences are stranger than fiction. For the people come here from everywhere and bring tradition with them.

From Far Corners
There are a score of globe trotters in Glendale who have lived in the far corners of the earth a round number of years. And the stories they can tell the authors of magazine articles! It is a hidden wealth of material not unlike a gold mine.

There are sailors who have seen the seven seas; there are explorers; soldiers of fortune; and what not in this human complex. So different from the middle west community where maybe two or three had traveled outside of their own country, unless it was France during the war. Why, no less than 90 per cent of the folks "back east" would be thrilled by a trip to California!

No need of the writer giving a bill of particulars regarding these residents of Glendale, who are famous or near-famous, who have tapped the comparatively secret labyrinths of the world supply of information which is literally "free for the asking."

Supply Right Here
Little wonder scenario writers, short story scribes and others abound in Glendale and Los Angeles and southern California. Most of their stuff is sold and judged in the east, but the source of supply is right here. A little yarn about a famous artist in the vicinity who invites other Bohemians to his studio one evening a month. He arranges for a cellist and pianist and he and his brother entertain the coterie by forming a quartet, the artist playing on a fiddle made from a cigar box!

JOIN BOULDER DAM ASSOCIATION

Spanish War Veterans Enter Organization; Women's Auxiliary Meet

Decision to join the Boulder Dam association was made last night at the meeting of the Glendale Spanish War veterans in the K. P. hall on South Brand boulevard. Dr. W. C. Mabry, commander of the camp, was appointed to represent the camp at the association.

During the meeting two new members were initiated, Julius S. Ekart of Tulving and Oliver P. Pourie of 343 El Bonto street. Announcement was made that Duffield's Brigade, composed of the Ninth Massachusetts, and Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth Michigan is to celebrate its silver anniversary September 12 at Saginaw, Mich.

Women's Auxiliary
At the same time as the camp meeting the Women's Auxiliary was in session in the K. P. building. Mrs. Mary R. Hill, president, directed the meeting, during which plans were made for a social meeting the first Wednesday night in September. Dancing and a short program will be entertainment features.

The committee arranging the affair includes Mesdames Alberta C. Merrihue, L. D. Pike and Peters.

Town Has Bootlegger For Each 100 People

SUPERIOR, Wis., Aug. 16.—This city, with a population of approximately 40,000, boasts at least one bootlegging establishment for each 100 population, records here show.

In a recent raid upon the so-called underworld section, thirty alleged bootleggers were taken. The police and federal agents were occupied in the raids for only a short time and were unable to visit all the resorts suspected, as word of the raids reached the "johns" and enabled the proprietors to destroy the "evidence," police said.

It has been a long time, according to police, since a single day passed when at least one arrest was not made for alleged liquor law violations. The income derived in form of fines and forfeited bales amounts to thousands of dollars monthly.

Inventor Predicts New War Instruments

LONDON, Aug. 16.—A submarine that will travel faster under the water than on the surface. A submersible, that will travel at a speed of forty knots. An airship that will carry not guns or torpedoes, but aeroplanes. These were among the prophecies of warfare of the future made in the House of Commons by Commander Burney, noted for many wartime inventions, during discussion on the Navy Estimates.

Burney believes that the battleship of the future will be an aerial battleship, and that a combination of an airship and an aeroplane will eliminate the floating battleship. He thinks, however, that it will be twenty or thirty years before any of the above described juggernauts will appear.

Neurosis Epidemic Is Feared for Britons

LONDON, Aug. 16.—Englishmen are in danger of becoming a race of neurotics if existing evils of the British social system are not remedied, according to Dr. Burnet Rae, a leading London physician.

"Unless we deal more adequately with evils like intemperance, social vice, overcrowding, the ridiculous system of education which makes no attempt to fit men and women for their task in life and other objectionable features of our industrial life," Dr. Rae said at a recent health conference, "there will appear in the next few generations an amount of mental and nervous instability that will lead to a break-down of our social system."

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 16.—Earle Brown, sheriff of Hennepin county, is a direct descendant of Captain David Brown, the first Colonial soldier to kill a British trooper in the Revolutionary war. Sheriff Brown recently made application for membership in the Sons of the American Revolution. ESCAPE CELL BY LAW'S LOOPHOLE

Missouri Attorney General Starts Drive to Check Up on All Cases

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Aug. 16.—Legal loopholes through which murderers, con men and others convicted of a crime have been playing "peek-a-boo" with the prosecutors and courts of the state are to be plugged up in a campaign which has been started to correct a most unusual situation of laxity declared to exist in the state of Missouri.

Through a lack of close records on appeal cases it has been disclosed that many persons convicted of felonies have been escaping punishment for years by starting appeals and leaving them unperfected in the higher court.

Under the law, a convicted person appealing his case to the supreme court is allowed one year in which to perfect his appeal to the supreme court.

Appeals Incomplete
An investigation started by Attorney General Jesse W. Barrett recently disclosed numerous cases where persons had started appeals removing them from the jurisdiction of the lower court but not filing the necessary papers in the supreme court within the time allowed. Some of these cases date back as far as six years, the investigation showed.

As no strict record was kept of such action, the Supreme court and the attorney general had no notification of such action and the lower courts lost track of it because of the belief that the case was working its way through the appellate court.

One of the cases unearthed in the investigation was that of a man convicted of murder and granted the right of appeal in May, 1920, where the appeal had not been perfected. Several cases of long prison sentences, one dating back to 1918, on convictions for larceny, second degree murder, forgery, grand larceny, etc., have been found in similar status.

Many Cases Dismissed
The attorney general's legal department recently filed eleven motions for dismissal in cases brought to light by the investigation and the supreme court sustained the motions. Similar motions are pending in fourteen additional cases and as reports asked of prosecuting attorneys throughout the state are incomplete, numerous other cases are expected to be found.

In his campaign, Attorney General Barrett addressed letters to each prosecuting attorney in the state asking them to check their dockets for cases where appeals have not been perfected and convicted men permitted to escape sentence.

TODAY—What Citizenship Means; Tragedy to Those Denied. TOMORROW—English Version of Jazz; American Players Leave; All-Night Parliament, by David M. Church, London Bureau.

By W. F. SULLIVAN For International News Service

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 16.—Through the hallway leading to the registration office in the federal building here one hears joy, comedy and sorrow mingled in one of the "miniature melting pots" of the nation.

Those given the right to become free American citizens take the examiner's decision with an ecstatic shout of joy, while those denied this right take the denial as a disgrace, and many have wept bitterly before A. J. Stack, chief naturalization examiner.

"The average American doesn't realize the intense earnestness of most of the applicants for citizenship," Stack declared in comment on the serious manner in which foreigners regard this step in their lives.

"If their applications are refused, or action is postponed, they think they are disgraced and almost invariably weep. What will my children say when I tell them that I cannot become an American?" they ask.

Stack tells of an Italian who, when his case was postponed for action, appeared crestfallen, to the point of being broken-hearted.

"He was the most down-hearted man I ever saw," Stack said. "A few days later I was told he was in the city hospital. He had cut his throat in an attempt at suicide because he thought the continuation was a complete rejection of his application for citizenship. He recovered rapidly after I told him he would soon become an American."

The examiner's daily life, however, is not composed entirely of sorrowful sights. Amusing incidents and letters keep the smile on his countenance. The other day he received the following from an applicant:

"Now sir, with Grate Honor to you I tell you that it is a Grate Apurtunity to git to be a Citysoun of the Grate Home of the Braves. In the year 1918 I ofset to git with the boys of Red, White and Blue to fite but no they would not let me go because I am not a Brave. My Frind I want to be a brother of you an American. I am one at hart now."

Stack tells one of the modest Hungarians who has been applying for citizenship since 1916 and says he will tell you what pair with his beauty so he can get a wife.

"Although I am the handsomest man that ever came out of Hungary," said modest Albert Bruder, "the women here call me a big bohunk. I want citizen papers so I can get a wife."

And these are but a few of the cases of human joy, comedy and sorrow that pass in and out of the portals of the examiner's office daily.

VANDERBILT KIN WILL MARRY

Miss Grace Vanderbilt, and, inset, Lord Ivor Charles Spencer-Churchill, who are soon to wed

According to word from London, the engagement of Miss Grace Vanderbilt and Lord Ivor Charles Spencer-Churchill is likely to be announced any day. Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

BY HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY MENDS A LEAK

"Here is a pitcher of water," said Nurse Jane. "When you think you have the hole mended pour some of this water from the pitcher into the tin pan. If no water runs out of the pan that will show the hole is mended."

"I shall give it to the tinker dog to mend," said Uncle Wiggily. "It will be an adventure for me to watch him. I shall sit out in front of my hollow stump bungalow and wait for the tinker dog."

"I can!" said Uncle Wiggily, calm and confident like. "All I need is a hot iron to melt the lead that runs in the hole and stops it up."

On their way home from the public school which they attended they had to pass the shanty where lived the bridge tender. On seeing two big goats tied to the side of the woodshed they at once scented mischief, for it was their joy and pleasure to hurt and tantalize any unprotected thing, be it child or animal.

These boys had been the terror of the neighborhood for years. But most of their misdeeds were done on the other side of the city as far away from their homes as they could well get, so that they could not be traced so easily to them.

Who's Who in the Days News. Russell Cornell Leffingwell. A task that will require unusual financial ability and will demand many years with increasing responsibility to consummate is to be turned over to Russell Cornell Leffingwell by J. P. Morgan & Co., according to reports from Wall Street.

Leffingwell appealed for cancellation of the Allied debts to America on the ground that "human sympathy, decent shame and enlightened self-interest call upon us to take our part."

"DON'TS FOR CHILD LOVERS Why do some people treat children as if they were creatures of an entirely inferior intelligence? The proper way to treat them in ordinary intercourse is quite as you would treat grown-ups. And yet so many people assume a silly vivacity, or a bland condescension, or some other unnatural or unnecessary change of manner when they attempt to converse with children. For such people there should be a set of don'ts compiled.

Carries Mail 6 Years, Is Found Too Light

WINTHROP, Maine, Aug. 16.—This village is in an uproar over the announcement of the civil service department that Arthur Jackson, for six years one of the most popular mail men in the state, was discharged because he only weighed 111 pounds.

Found fourteen pounds too light, Arthur was told he could no longer be village letter carrier because the civil service rules say that carriers in postoffices of city classifications must weigh 125 pounds.

Indignant inhabitants say a protest will be made to Washington unless the edict is canceled.

TUJUNGA

PLAN EXHIBIT IN ARTIST'S STUDIO

Display of Paintings to Be Held During Festival at End of Month

Although the building will not be completed for some weeks, Laura Lee Sweet is planning an exhibit in her new studio which is now under construction on Michigan avenue at Hillhaven road.

This exhibit will be chiefly of the creations of local artists who have already distinguished themselves, and will be held during the Moon Festival of the Tujungas from Friday, August 31, to Monday, September 3, inclusive. Visitors will be welcome and a special invitation is extended to Glendale people who are interested in the progress of art and literature.

Mrs. Sweet hopes to be able to open the studio some time in the latter part of September, at which time the Glendale Art association will hold a moonlight picnic at her home. It is planned to hold the formal opening at that time, plans for which will be announced later.

Plans Art Colony
The founder of this studio club has ambitious plans for a flourishing art colony in Tujunga that will be known as the "Artists' and Authors' Association of Tujunga Valley." She plans to make this a place where artists may exhibit without judge or jury, and where authors may read their work; a place to encourage art and literature, where everyone will be given a chance. As Mrs. Sweet is a dreamer who combines practicality with her visions, there is little doubt that the association will be a success and that Tujunga will eventually rank in this respect with other art centers and colonies of Southern California.

The natural scenic beauty of Tujunga valley has attracted many artists and writers of unusual ability and the number is constantly growing. It is the purpose of the founder to make the studio and grounds the center of activities. There will be an exhibition at all times the work of local artists.

Second Exhibition

The exhibit this year will be the second to be held in conjunction with the Moon Festival. Last year more than thirty pictures were exhibited by local creative artists, the list including: "Sunset in the Hills," Laura Lee Sweet, a palette knife sketch. "Mount Hood," John H. Trickey. "On Mountain Trail" (Big Bear), Mrs. Harriet Barry. "The Last Sheat," Elmer Ellsworth McNeely. "Dream Garden" (Arcadia, Missouri), P. McNeely. "Evening Shadows" (Tujunga), Mrs. Harriet Barry. "Morning View, Tujunga Mountains and Valley," A. L. Davison. Sketch, P. McNeely.

Oaks on Hillside (Tujunga)—The Canyon (near Sunland)—P. McNeely; Storm on Verdugo Hills, Mrs. Harriet Barry; Faun, J. S. Schultz; The Dry Wash (Tujunga Canyon), P. McNeely; Near Kemmwick Mountain, P. McNeely; Eucalypti, Mrs. Laura Scott; Sunny Brook, A. L. Davison; Holy Family, J. S. Schultz; Sketch, P. McNeely; Mrs. McDonald's Carnation Ranch, R. L. Davison; Study of Wild Iris, Mrs. Harriet Barry; Sunshine and Mist in the Canyon (palette knife sketch), Mrs. Laura Sweet; Medallion (portrait), Leon Tosi; Caravan, J. S. Schultz; Miss Virginia Brown Fair (portrait), Leon Tosi; Immaculate Conception, J. S. Schultz; Study of Flowers, Leon Tosi; Eucalyptus at Morning, Mrs. Laura Lee Sweet; Shadows, Mrs. Laura Lee Sweet; Batiks, Miss Kelly.

Among the skilled constructive and applied artists who have distinguished themselves and now live in Tujunga are: Mrs. Florence Gilmour, an adept in jewelry and metal work and a former student of the Pratt Art institute of Brooklyn, N.Y.; Mrs. Edna Hill, bookbinding and interior decorating, a graduate of the Newcomb Art institute at New Orleans; the Misses Keane, leather work and basketry; Miss Runna Coil, commercial art; Mrs. Leo Lang, lamp-shades; Mrs. Mabel Dean and Mrs. Kraft, jewelry, metal work and painting.

There are also many literary people gathered in Tujunga, foremost among them being John Steven McGroarty, author and playwright.

Tumbler Is Felt

A slight earthquake was felt in Tujunga at 4:10 Tuesday afternoon, lasting but a few seconds and scarcely perceptible.

The artists of Tujunga who are members of the Glendale Art club will meet with other members at Laguna Beach on August 25 for a day's outing and picnic. James Robbins will soon begin a residence building on Michigan avenue east of Pine street. The owner is Mrs. Sweet.

Mr. Lehigh has sold his home on Golondrina drive and is planning a long trip by automobile. He will return and make his home in Los Angeles, according to present plans.

Absurd British War Laws Still in Force

LONDON, Aug. 16.—War regulations, now become farcical, still largely exist in Britain.

After 9:30 in the evening it is illegal to sell strawberries and cream, but it is perfectly legal to sell strawberries and ice cream. It is unlawful to sell cigarettes or tobacco after 8 p. m., but a saloon keeper can legally sell either if he serves a meal at the same time. At the same time, if he should sell a biscuit with a glass of wine he is committing an offence.

A restaurant may lawfully serve a cooked sausage up to any time, but to hand over an uncooked sausage would be a breach of regulations.

After 9:30 a shopkeeper can sell all the soft drinks and ice cream he likes, so long as they are consumed on the premises, but if he sells them to be taken away he is committing a crime.

Members of Parliament are agitating to have these absurdities swept away.

Few Sailing Vessels Now, Lloyd's Report

LONDON, Aug. 16.—Sailing craft are fast vanishing from the oceans, according to Lloyd's Register of Shipping, which states that the present per centage of sailing vessels to the world's tonnage is less than four and a half. Last year the world's steam tonnage increased by 992,421 tons, says Lloyd's, while the sailing tonnage decreased by nearly 200,000 tons.

(2) That the property north of Sycamore, east of Valley drive to a point one hundred and twenty feet west of Central avenue, which is at an alley, and bounded on the north by the rear line of the lots facing on Sycamore street, be changed from zone C to zone B.

(3) That east Sycamore from Pinehurst and the extension thereof to Floristan and the extension thereof on both sides of the street and one hundred and fifty feet back from the street be changed from zone A to zone C.

(4) That Townsend avenue, bounded on the north by Fairview on the east side, and Forrest on the west side and on the south by Sycamore avenue, and two lots deep on each side be changed from zone A to zone B.

(5) That lots twenty-nine and thirty of block one Floristan Heights Tract be changed from zone A to zone C. That lots 12, 13 and 14 of Townsite Tract be changed from zone A to zone C.

(6) That Colorado boulevard, between Hartwick and Victoria on the south side be changed from zone B to zone C.

(7) That Colorado boulevard, between Eagle Rock road and the extension of Dean street into the southerly side of Colorado boulevard, be changed from zone B to zone C.

(8) That the north side of Colorado boulevard, between Hartwick and Dean street, be changed from zone B to zone C.

(9) That both sides of Pearl street and the east side of Glen Eyrle, from the business zone on Colorado boulevard to Stanley avenue be changed from zone B to zone A. Exhibit C (now in question).

(10) That all the rest east of Central avenue and south of Colorado which is in zone A, except that which has been otherwise classified in this report, shall be changed from zone A to zone B.

(11) That lots 23 and 31 of the Honolulu Tract be changed from zone A to zone C.

It is expected that the Los Angeles City Council will promptly pass the necessary ordinances. As soon as this has been done, new maps will be prepared and filed at the city hall.

Eagle Rock Realty board has received written assurance from G. Gordon Whitnall, director of the Los Angeles City Planning commission, to the effect that no business will be permitted in zone "B", with the exception of physicians and surgeons. This is the Los Angeles zoning ordinance, and thus prohibits real estate brokers from conducting their business at their homes outside the business district. Mr. Brown feels that it will be a good thing for Eagle Rock to force zone "B", with the exception of physicians and surgeons, to take offices in zone "C" if they wish to continue in business.

NASH

Announces New Models

FOURS and SIXES

These new Nash conceptions in open and enclosed car types are now placed on display with a quiet surety that they will exceed the expectations even of those who look for Nash to lead the way and who consequently set their hopes highest.

With traditional progressiveness Nash has developed a number of bodies and other outstanding improvements whose artistry and execution is as certain to command the professional concern of coachwork craftsmen and engineers as the admiration of the public at large.

With no justification in the way of increased manufacturing costs for a price advance Nash stands firm on current prices so that the important and expensive new car advancements relating both to engineering and equipment in reality constitute a price reduction.
